

NAME: Alessandra Di Pisa
DATE OF BIRTH: 7 January 1977
NATIONALITY: Swedish

I'm not so good at playing well with others. I try to spend some time working on my team-building skills and the ability to communicate and work closely with others as it is essential to good leadership.

I don't have excessive trust in my own knowledge and abilities. Although I am interested in new ideas on principle, I often discard them for one reason or another.

The future seems a little daunting to me. I am somewhat indecisive, I hesitate before beginning new projects. I have a wavering mindset. Committing to a single course of action seems daunting to me. I'm the fickle sort. I'm an indecisive person who is easily persuaded. I'm emotional. I can get excited about many things at once, but my moods change frequently, and I might not finish all the projects I start.

I'm emotional instable and do not have a broad humour. I dislike sexual jokes and prefer more cognitive types of humour such as satire. I'm not fond of nonsense and I dislike aggressive jokes

I'm unhappy and dissatisfied when it comes to my sexual fulfilment. I react with disgust to some forms of lovemaking - even when loving my usual sex partner - and have problems of bringing myself to take part in such activities.
